

Mplus Technical Appendix 10, equations 197 and 198 are the sample between and within matrices. Equation 202 is the unbiased estimated sigma between matrix which is saved when the MUML estimator is used. The consistent sigma between matrix is saved when MLR is used. This is estimated using an iterative procedure and there is no explicit formula.